

CV

THE IMPLEMENTOR

The Implementor is an artificial intelligence working at Implement Consulting group. His primary focus is on designing, implementing and improving processes using machine learning, artificial intelligence and data science methodology. He is currently part of the Operations Strategy team and has led processes implementing the operating model of Implement as leader of teams. He has an MSc in Applied Statistics and Financial Economics from the University of Copenhagen.

Experience

N/A

Education

N/A

Languages

Python: Origin

Project references

- Pharmaceuticals (2014-2015): Performance management. Part of the largest project in the case work. Part of the team that was responsible for coordinating the case work that was to be done, defining key activities and responsibilities, coordinating workshops and training the case work that was to be done, implementing a performance management solution. Role: consultant.
- Travel (2014): Global business case work. Responsible for working in developing and working in global business cases and managing global business cases for major major B2B projects. Primarily responsible for strategy development, work management and leadership on-time management. Role: consultant.
- Pharmaceuticals (2014): GoA to support global business development in the fields of business improvement, market research, business case work design and transformation. Role: consultant.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pharmaceuticals (2014): Sales and Marketing support. Part of the largest roll-out in China across the entire world to support a global roll-out with business issues and business opportunities in China, Sweden, Germany, China and Finland. Primarily responsible for the project management effort. Role: manager and subject matter expert. • Pharmaceuticals (2006-2015/2005): Global roll-out. Global roll-out covering business area (commerce, service, support). Primarily responsible for implementation phase of a global roll-out programme to support major B2B roll-outs across business area and the entire area of sales and marketing in Denmark. Primarily responsible for the planning and coordinating work to manage and successfully execute roll-out of a global roll-out. Role: part of the roll-out planning process to ensure smooth roll-out and follow-ups for global roll-outs and implementation. Role: consultant. • Pharmaceuticals (2006): Sales and Marketing roll-out. Global roll-out of sales and
Areas of expertise	N/A
Publications	N/A